STANFORD LIBRARY

CAMDEN, N. J.:

F. F. PATTERSON, STATE PRINTER.

1895.

The following General Public Laws, passed by the One Hundred and Nineteenth Legislature, are compiled in accordance with the act entitled "An act relative to public printing," approved March 23, 1883, which provides "that the laws shall be collated under two heads of General Public Acts, Special Public and Private Acts."

The General Public Laws are printed in the front part of the volume.

The Joint Resolutions and Proclamations by the Governor are placed next after the General Public Laws.

The Special Public and Private Acts follow in the order of their approval, and, with the table of Contents and Index of all the laws, complete the same.

HENRY C. KELSEY,
Secretary of State.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 14, 1895.

CHAPTER CLX.

An Act concerning the qualification of commissioners appointed to assess benefits conferred by the construction of sewers and drains in certain cases.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in all cases where the benefits conferred by the construction of any sewer or drain shall extend beyond the line of such sewer or drain, no commissioner appointed to assess the benefits conferred by the construction of any such sewer or drain shall be disqualified because of his being interested as owner in any lands situate beyond the line of such sewer or drain, but included within the area or district benefited thereby. Ownership in certain cases shall not disqualify.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 14, 1895.

CHAPTER CLXI.

An Act for the incorporation of park trustees.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That whenever a tract of land has heretofore been or may hereafter be conveyed to any persons in trust for use as a public park, Trustees may be incorporated.

Proceedings to
trustees.

and such park has been opened and established, it shall and may be lawful for such persons to become incorporated as hereinafter provided, and have, possess and enjoy all the powers and privileges which now are or may hereafter be granted to corporations as such by law; such persons so desiring to become incorporated shall make a certificate in writing under their hands and seals, which shall be filed and recorded with the clerk of the county wherein said park is situate; said certificate shall recite that the persons making the same are trustees, maintaining a public park, and the municipality, township or other place where the same is situated and maintained, and that they desire to become incorporated under a name to be therein stated, which shall thereafter be the corporate name of the said corporation, and upon the filing and recording of said certificate, said trustees shall be and become a body politic and corporate in the law as aforesaid, and thereafter shall have and hold any property, real and personal, belonging to said trustees, as the property of said corporation; provided, however, that said corporation shall be subject to the same limitations and restrictions as the trustees are subjected to, as to the management of the trust, in and by virtue of the instrument creating them such trustees; membership in such corporation shall be created as provided by the by-laws of such corporations.

Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 14, 1895.
